RICK'S RAMBLINGS

Happy Holidays to you and your entire family. As the weather gets chillier and we close up camp for the cold winter months, we are thankful for the warm memories of summer and all the good times we had together at camp this year. Best wishes for a happy and healthy holiday season!

Please remember to light your candles with your parents and while gazing into the flame think about those great times we all had at Camp Mi-Te-Na.

Your friend,
Rick Ross

CAMP MI-TE-NA'S CANDLE TRADITION

As always, we invite you and your family to join us in the Mi-Te-Na candle lighting tradition! On Christmas Eve, or sometime over the holiday season, light a candle (the one from last summer, if you still have it) and for a few moments, pause and remember your friends, counselors and all the good times that you had last summer at Camp Mi-Te-Na. Share your memories and what you have to be thankful for with your family and friends, it will make it even more meaningful.

There are many ways of getting to your one true path in life and time is key. Some people are destined for fate, time is their enemy. So let destiny take hold of your life so you can cherish and spend all of your time admirably. Some say time is more valuable than money; I'm beginning to think that is true. So take the time and happy holidays. Matt Levasseur

This was my first year at a summer camp, it turned out to be nothing like I expected; the atmosphere, campers, staff and traditions here are astonishing.
